COURSE OVERVIEW

An executive-level course in the strategic leadership that drives organizational safety transformation, distinct from front-line supervision and operational management.

You will learn to set long-term safety direction through strategic plans, multi-year objectives and transformation roadmaps; assess culture maturity using the Bradley Curve and Hudson Ladder; and lead lasting change. Performance governance covers balanced scorecards, executive dashboards and strategic KPIs.

The course also covers managing stakeholders (boards, regulators, unions, communities and media), governing safety across multi-site and multi-national organizations, building leadership capability and succession at every level, and crisis leadership.
