COURSE OVERVIEW

A focused program that prepares participants to lead and coordinate workplace safety committee activities within general industry.

The program addresses the strategic and operational responsibilities of a committee chair: facilitating effective meetings, guiding hazard identification, overseeing incident review and supporting safety management system elements across the organization. Coverage extends to safety governance, ergonomics, emergency preparedness and systematic incident investigation.

Aligned with OSHA 29 CFR 1910 and recognized safety management practice, the program develops the facilitation, communication and leadership skills needed to make a committee an effective mechanism for employee engagement, preventive action and continuous improvement.

LEADING THE SAFETY COMMITTEE

This program prepares you to chair a safety committee alongside your current job. It does not lead to a different occupation, so instead of wage data, this page sets out what the chair role involves and why it matters.

WHAT THE COMMITTEE DOES

- ✓ Brings workers and management together on workplace safety and health
- ✓ Reviews hazards, inspection findings and incidents
- ✓ Recommends improvements to the site safety program
- ✓ Tracks agreed actions until they are closed

WHAT THE CHAIR CONTRIBUTES

- ✓ Plans agendas and runs focused, productive meetings
- ✓ Keeps discussion on priorities and decisions on record
- ✓ Assigns corrective actions and follows them through
- ✓ Acts as the link between the committee and management

HOW IT SUPPORTS THE SAFETY PROGRAM

- ✓ Integrates committee work into the safety management system
- ✓ Directs risk assessments, ergonomic reviews and incident reviews
- ✓ Keeps emergency action plans current and tested
- ✓ Drives continuous improvement across the site

WHAT THE EMPLOYER GAINS

- ✓ A committee that meets with purpose and produces results
- ✓ Faster closure of corrective actions
- ✓ Stronger engagement from the workforce
- ✓ A clear point of coordination for safety improvement

An effective chair turns a regular meeting into a working part of the safety program. That is what this program is built to develop.
